Group Fitness Class Policies and Procedures

- Aerobic classes measure intensity through ratings of perceived exertion and the talk test. If you desire to check your heart rate, the instructor will be glad to assist you.
- Regardless of class intensity, instructors will demonstrate modified/lower intensity moves in each class.
- All classes must have 3 or more people to begin the class.
- Children must be at least 13 years of age and have direct parental supervision inside the room to participate in any group fitness class.
- Children 12 and younger are not allowed in the room while the class is being taught. Instead, they can be cared for in the childwatch center or can participate in our EnerGym Program or ExerGame Zone (see the front desk for details).
- The group fitness schedule is updated every 6-8 weeks (see group fitness schedule for specified dates). All classes are subject to change based on class participation and instructor availability. All classes that do not average a minimum of 6 participants over the scheduled 6-8 week period will be cancelled for the upcoming schedule.
- Arrive to class in enough time to set up any equipment and be prepared when class begins.
- Stay for the duration of the class. Warm-up and cool-down are an important component of any class.
- Inform your class instructor of any special medical conditions or injuries.
- Please wear appropriate clothing and tennis shoes. Turn off or silence your cell phone during class.
- Please wait until the previous class has exited the room before entering for the next class.
- Spinning class policies/procedures and reservation book are located outside of the spinning room.
- If you have any questions or comments, please contact Fitness Director Patrick Conn @ 601-925-7914 or at pconn@mbhs.org
